

Youth & Young Professionals on INnovation, Science and Technology Platform for RESiliency

15 Oct 2019, Malaysia

Pradip Khatiwada, Co-Founder, U-Inspire
Nepal

“No one knows everything, everyone knows something”

Pierre Levy

Youth & Young Professionals on INnovation, Science and Technology Platform for RESiliency

11 May 2019

Learn. Connect. Lead

What we do?

Major Activities

SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH

Facilitating Masters and Bachelors students to conduct research in DRR and publish in international journals. 2 projects ongoing related to landslides and floods.

*HACKATHON

Developing early warning system for landslides.
Urban DRR concept.

PAKISTAN-NEPAL UINSPIRE COLLABORATION

Ongoing research on landslide simulation of the Attahbad lake in Pakistan.

*MAPATHON

Celebrate OSM Geography Awareness Week to sensitize young people to contribute on OpenStreetMap

*DRR PHOTOGRAPHY

Photography competition for disaster risk reduction.

*CROSS INSTITUTIONAL COLLABORATIONS

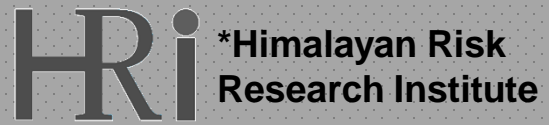

Organize meetings for facilitating cross institutional collaborations and partnerships.

* means planned

Current Partnerships

Youth Innovation Lab

NSET Nepal

Our approach on U-Inspire Nepal

Short term [Completed]

Setting up the U-Inspire Nepal team and create a ad-hoc team for activities

Medium Term

[Vision 2020]

Official launch of U-Inspire Nepal, Setting up website, fostering partnerships and a working committee

Long term

[Vision 2025]

U-Inspire Nepal, a largest voluntarily network within Nepal, Network within all provincial and Municipal level

Thank you. 😊

For more details, youthpradip@gmail.com or visit www.pradipkhatiwada.com

BONUS

Naturally Nepal. Once is Not Enough.

